1. This International Searching Authority

(i) considers that there are 3 (number of) inventions claimed in the international application covered by the claims indicated ~~below~~ on the extra sheet:

and it considers that the international application does not comply with the requirements of unity of invention (Rules 13.1, 13.2 and 13.3) for the reasons indicated ~~below~~ on the extra sheet:

(ii)  has carried out a partial international search (see Annex)  will establish the international search report on those parts of the international application which relate to the invention first mentioned in claims Nos.:

- In case of a total of more than 2 inventions found: when paying please specify exactly which claims should be searched.
- An extension of the set time limit cannot be granted.

Payment by cheque:

- The date to be considered as the date on which the payment is made is the date of receipt of the cheque at the EPO, provided that the cheque is met.
- Copies of cheques sent by fax or by post are not considered to be a valid payment.
- The fees shall be paid in euro, no equivalents in other currencies.

Important information

Rule 40 PCT has been amended as of 1 April 2005. For general information on the protest procedure at ISA/EP, please refer to OJ EPO 3/2005, pages 226/227.

1. As in the past the payment of any additional fee may be made under protest i.e. accompanied by a reasoned statement to the effect that the international application complies with the requirement of unity of invention or that the amount of the required additional fees is excessive according to amended Rule 40.2(c) PCT.
2. After due receipt of the payment of the additional search fee(s) under protest (i.e. within one month from the date of the invitation), the EPO will, prior to examination of the protest by the Board of Appeal, subject the invitation to pay additional fees to an internal review. The result of this review will be communicated to the applicant.
3. The fee for examination of the protest (Rule 40.2(e) PCT) is payable within one month from the date of the invitation to pay additional fees (Rule 40.1(iii) PCT). However, in order to allow the applicant to consider the result of the internal review, the applicant may pay the protest fee within one month from the date of notification of the result of the review.
4. Should the applicant wish to maintain his protest in light of the review he must pay the protest fee within one month from the date of notification of the result of the internal review, in which case the protest will be referred to the Board of Appeal. Should the Board of Appeal find that the protest was entirely justified, the protest fee shall be refunded.
5. In the event of the applicant already having paid the protest fee before notification of the result of the review, the protest will be referred to the Board of Appeal unless the result of the internal review was that the protest was entirely justified or the applicant indicates within one month from the date of notification of the result of the review that he does not wish to continue the protest. In both cases, the protest fee will be refunded.

This International Searching Authority found multiple (groups of) inventions in this international application, as follows:

1. claims: 1-20,23-43,49-65

A system for treating urinary incontinence comprising an apparatus and an applicator coupled to said apparatus for facilitating insertion of the apparatus into the vagina; the apparatus comprises a node, a support section attached to the node and adapted for providing urethral support and an anchoring section attached to said apparatus opposite the support section and adapted for resisting movement of said apparatus.

2. claims: 21-22,44

A method for preserving shelf life and performance characteristics of a urinary incontinence treating device

3. claims: 45-48

An apparatus for treating urinary incontinence comprising: a plurality of rods, each characterised by a proximal section, a midsection and a distal section; an anchor base and a support base adapted to engage and retain each rod at the proximal section and midsection respectively; and an expansion mechanism comprising a hub and a spoke for each rod wherein each spoke is adapted at each end thereof to engage and retain a distal section of a rod and the hub is adapted to contact a neck of the support base

The first group of claims intends to define an apparatus to be inserted inside the vagina for treating urinary incontinence that is not large, uncomfortable and intrusive avoiding causing irritation or soreness of the vagina. To distend the vaginal wall, the defined apparatus needs to be flexible to allow it to extend into at least two of the three planar subsections that define the nominal curvature of the vagina. An associated applicator avoiding the need of a doctor to place the apparatus is also defined.

The second group of claims intends to define a method and an applicator for preserving shelf life and performance characteristics of a urinary incontinence treating device. It seems that the method and the applicator could be applied to any apparatus to treat female urinary incontinence. Moreover, it seems that keeping at least a support section of the device in a substantially un-compressed state preserves its shelf life and performance characteristics.

The third group of claims defines an apparatus provided with an expansion mechanism. Apparently the expansion mechanism enables the defined apparatus to better adapt to the morphology of the vagina.

These three groups of claims do not seem not to define the same technical features. in fact, no correspondence (they are neither the same nor similar) between the defined technical features is envisaged. Moreover, each of them seem to intend to solve different problems. In conclusion, they do not appear to show a common inventive concept.

This Search Authority consequently invites the applicant to pay two (2) extra search fees before all the inventions in the present application can be searched.
